Testimonials

When Stephani and I wanted to build a quality home on our Abbott Street property appropriate to the neighborhood we asked several long time Kelowna housing industry people for a contractor we could approach who was considered honest, dependable and competent. We were introduced to Josh Richmond of Richmond Custom Homes and were immediately impressed with how approachable Josh was. His communication skills are strong and he took the time to review things with us and explain any areas of concern. This was backed up by his knowledge, creativity and taste appropriate for quality custom homes...”

We came to know Josh Richmond while looking to build in Lakestone and recently took possession of our new Richmond Custom Home (RCH).

This was not our first new build so we were well aware there would be challenges along the way, there always are. However, the manner in which Josh handled the tough conversations was impressive/ thoughtful. It's clear Josh sets high standards for himself and his team. All the RCH members we interacted with were knowledgeable, responsive and a pleasure to deal with.

If you want a quality builder with reputable/reliable trades and loads of integrity, we highly recommend RCH.”

From start to finish Josh, you showed attention to detail and professionalism as you organized and supervised the construction of our new home. You managed to make up two months of time lost due to circumstances beyond your control and kept on time and budget. Schedule and budget updates were initiated and explained fully at the appropriate time. We felt secure during the whole process even though we could not always be there physically. The times we were on site, the trades people would take the time to explain what they were doing and answer any questions we had. Your suggestions and advice were always appreciated...”
